ORAL JUDGMENT

Rule. Shri Maulik Nanavati, learned AGP waives service of notice of Rule on behalf of respondents No. 1 and 2. With the consent of the learned advocates appearing for the parties, the matter is taken up for Final Hearing today.

2. By way of this Special Civil Application under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has prayed for an appropriate writ, order or direction directing the respondents to act as per the resolution dated 29.9.2006 with regard to allotment of land. It appears that the petitioner has already submitted representation dated 25.3.2006 Annexure B to the petition to the District Collector, Rajkot. However, Shri Nanavati, learned AGP has submitted that no such representation is received by the District Collector. Be that it may, the petitioner may make a fresh representation to the concerned respondent and/or to the concerned Collector and if such representation is made within the period of 2 weeks from today the concerned respondents are directed to take appropriate decision in accordance with law and on merits, and considering the policy of the State Government and Government Resolutions and/or Circulars, if any, within the period of six months and communicate the outcome to the petitioner accordingly. Rule is made absolute. There shall be no order as to costs. Direct service is permitted.
